

Man With No Name

Johnny Hates Jazz

Hair as long as a waterfall
Eyes as bright as the stars
He wonders why we are standing still
When we've traveled so far
Greets the sun every morning
And the moon every night
But everybody ignores him
They want their names up in lights
They want their names up in lights

He is a Man With No Name
In a world that has gone insane
And he's waiting for us to fall
In love with Love again

He remembers an era
Some now it call naive
Songs of flowers and freedom
They were living the dream
But as with much that was beautiful
It has vanished with time
Now he thinks that our brave new world
Has reached the end of the line
'Cause we've lost our hearts and our minds

He is a Man With No Name
In a world that has gone insane
And he's waiting for us to fall
In love with Love again

He does not fear oblivion
Hope's alive in his heart
'Cause he knows at the end of the road
There will be a brand new start....

He is a Man With No Name
In a world that has gone insane
And he's waiting for us to fall
In love with Love again
