Lost in Loveliness

What a thrill you are What a sight to see Something the eyes of mortals have no right to see Am I on the earth or in the sky? Lost in loveliness am I When I look at you I forget myself I could go mad about you if I let myself Should I let myself or pass you by? Lost in loveliness am I I know I'm reaching for a star What's more; I know how dangerous you are If I were wise I'd close my eyes Or walk away and worship from afar In the lonely night You would haunt my heart And I would pray that someday you might want my heart And I'd have to live my whole life through Lost in loveliness, the loveliness of you
