

Heart Don't Need Eyes

Johnny Paycheck

Well, a heart don't need eyes to see
When it's over it don't have to be told
No, a heart don't need arms to feel
It just withers and dies from the cold

Well, I woke up this mornin' and found your note
But I already knew what it said
'Cause there's been no love in this house for so long now
And what else could you do when love is dead

And a heart don't need eyes to see
When it's over it don't have to be told
No, a heart don't need arms to feel
It just withers and dies from the cold

No, a heart don't need eyes to see
When it's over it don't have to be told
No, a heart don't need arms to feel
It just withers and dies from the cold
Yes, it just withers and dies from the cold
