

Something Strange

Johnny Rivers

Something strange is happening to me
Something more than my two eyes can see
And I know I can no longer live in false reality.

Lies get clearer every day
Truth this time you're here to stay
And this feelin' deep in my soul will not pass away.

The question came to me
Is there more than I could Be?
Then I opened up my eyes to what I am inside.

Life gets sweeter every day
Love you're here to stay
This feelin' down in my soul will not pass away.
