

Personality Crisis

Johnny Thunders

Well, we can't take her this week
And her friends don't want another speech Hoping for her that someday they'll hear what she's got to say
All about that personality crisis
You got it while it was hot
But now frustration and heartache is what you've got You know I'm talking about her personality Well, now you're trying to be someone, now you gotta do something Wanna be someone who counts But you're thinking about the times you did, they took every ounce
Well, it sure gotta be a shame when you start to scream and shout
You gotta contradict all those times you butterflied about
You was butterflying
About a personality crisis
You got it while it was hot It's always hot, you know, but frustration and heartache is what you've got I'm trying to talk about personality
And you're a prima ballerina on a spring afternoon Change on into the wolfman, howling at the moon
About a personality crisis
You got it while it was hot
It's always hot, you know, but frustration and
heartache is what you've got I'm talking about a personality Now, with all the cards of fate that mother nature sends
Your mirror's getting jammed up with all your friends That's personality, every scene is starting to blend Personality, when your mind starts to bend Got so much personality, flashing on a friend of a friend of a friend of a friend of a friend Personality, wondering how celebrities ever mend, looking fine on television Personality crisis
You got it while it was hot
It's always hot, you know, but frustration and heartache is all you've got Don't you worry, it's just a personality crisis, please don't cry
Don't you worry, it's just a personality crisis, please don't stop Because you walk with personality, talk with personality
