

E.Z. Rider

Johnny Winter

E.Z. rider, oh, you E.Z. rider
Baby, don't you see what you done, done?
You done gone and left me while I lay sleepin'
Baby, now you know your natural man done come
Baby, now you know your natural man done come

I'm going to the country, yes, I'm goin' to the country
Yes, I'm goin' to stay there for a little while
You know I ain't good lookin' but don't let that deceive you
I talk about you like you sweet mama
Like you was a sweet angel child
Talk about you like you was an angel child

When you see me comin'
Baby, when you see me comn'
Won't you tell that old man?
(Something)

You know I ain't no stranger to you, baby
I been in your sweet lovin' arms before
Baby, you know
I've been in your sweet lovin' arms before

Hey rider, hey
(Something, something)
Woman, where you been, where you been all night?

You know your hair's all tangled
And your dress is all messy
And the shoes you got on baby
You ain't got your shoes on right
Baby, you ain't got your shoes on right
