Rock and Roll People

Johnny Winter

Two, three, four!

Yeah, we're rock and roll people, born to pick the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to

Don't tell me where your head is, man I can see your shinin' shoes Don't play the Virgin Mary We all know you've been screwed

Rock and roll people, born to be the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to

My father was a mother My mother was a son Don't play the dog for dinner We all been twenty-one

We're rock and roll people, born to be the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to

Don't ask me what the time is Or how much space I need Don't play the Mona Lisa You'll know where she's been

Well, rock and roll people, born to be the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to

Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet rock and roll

Sweet, sweet rock and roll Rock, rock, rock and roll Rock, rock, rock and roll Rock, rock, rock and roll Uh huh, uh

Hey!

Two, three, four!

We're the rock and roll people, born to pick the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to

Don't ask me where your head is, man I can see your shinin' shoes Don't play the Virgin Mary We all know you've been screwed Well, rock and roll people, born to pick the news Yeah, we're rock and roll people I just couldn't change it if I would choose to Sweet, sweet rock and roll Sweet, sweet Okay!