You Keep Sayin' That You're Leavin'

Johnny Winter

You keep sayin' that you're leavin'
If it's true I'll help you pack
Yes you keep tellin' me you're gonna leave me baby
You know if it's true I'll help you pack
But you know I ain't gonna be here waitin'
Girl if you come runnin' back

You keep sayin' that you're leavin'
But girl I swear I don't know why, I don't know why
Oh oh, you keep sayin' that you're leavin' baby
But girl I swear I don't know why
I did everything a man could do to keep you happy
And it don't seem like you even tried, that you even tried

[Instrumental]

I said everything before
Now I ain't got no more to say
Yes I said everything before girl
Now I ain't got no more to say
You know you treated a good man so bad
Well down the line you're gonna pay
