

If I was your boyfriend

Johnta Austin

Tell me
How could you call someone like him, baby
What does he have
To make you blind to the kind of guy that he is
Girl that just ain't sexy
You're just way too sexy
You know I ain't really one to hate on another
But girl I got to be
Real honest
I just got to be
The one to
Tell you deserve a better look for your life
Than the one that you have
Baby can I just ask
Does he love you
Hell na
You don't know what love is
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend
If I was your late at night
Baby you would never cry
If I was your ride or die
Baby you would live the life
Do you trust him
Hell na
You don't know what trust is
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend

If I was your better half
If I was your lover man
Baby you would understand
If I was your boyfirend

Now we been here
Freaking it, hoping it, wishing it
Girl I said we been
Leaving it alone, not leaving it
To each other like we're suppose to
Love is taking over
You're hoping he doesn't find out
I swear I hope he find out
I know you ain't really one to keep up no drama
But girl I got to be
Real honest
I just got to be
The one to
Than the one that you have
Baby can I just ask
Does he love you
Hell na
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend
If I was your late at night

If I was your ride or die
Hell na
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend

If I was your better half
If I was your lover man
If I was your boyfirend

I'm a show you how to do this
Show you about some next level love
It ain't nothing to it
Baby get use to it
Being treated hella fly
Baby come and say goodbye
To that man
O shorty he ain't the man
I'm gonna tell you what the truth is
Anytime you ask me a question
Girl I just got to be
Real honest
The one to
Than the one that you have
Baby can I just ask you
Does he love you
Hell na
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend
If I was your late at night
Baby you would never cry
If I was your ride or die
Do you trust him
Hell na
Bet you would see it
If I was your boyfriend

If I was your better half
If I was your lover man
