

In the Dark

Jojo

This ain't the first or last time
We'll meet up this late at night
To let our fates intertwine
Casually I'd rather be
Detached from all tragedy
This don't need to be defined

And I know that it's wrong
I do, I do
Baby keep holding on
I do, I do
Yeah, I know that it's wrong
I do
When the sun comes up I'll be gone

I only know him in the dark
I only know him in the dark

Try to stay desensitized
Keep my feelings out of mind
My body won't be denied
Never took this road before
Love was always out the court
Of anyone I've been with before

And I know that it's wrong
I do, I do
Baby keep holding on
I do
Yeah, I know that it's wrong
I do
When the sun comes up I'll be gone

I only know him in the dark
I only know him in the dark

A smile's across your face
Your lips a familiar taste
Stay focused, I try
Can't get this out of my mind
I want more than what this is
Whatever we're calling this
The truth just breaks my heart

I only know him in the dark
I only know him in the dark
