

Bloodshot Sky

Jon Allen

Did I sleep, did I dream
Was it all I hoped for
Did these bloodshot tears run clean
Far beyond this bloodshot sky

Did I hear a distant voice
Though it was a whisper
Telling me I had a choice
Underneath this bloodshot sky

Did I find forgiving ground
I could lay my head on
Before the night came down
To overcome this bloodshot sky

Was the sun burning bright
Shining like it knew me
Just a trick of the light
A broken promise a cheating sky

I keep rolling over unturned stones
Chasing memories I've never know

Did I ever let you go
To see again through old eyes
The part of you I used to know
Long before this bloodshot sky
