

All in a Matter of Time

Jon Anderson

All in a matter of time
Greet the sunlight
Summers morning, ever to be mine
All in a matter of time
Feel the rush of loves emotion
Bring me sunshine
Wonder what idea can form this very day
Takes it's time to wake to such a chance
A dream these words clearly to my heart
To my heart
All in a matter of time
I would only want your loving
Closer to mine
All in a matter of time
Feel the spirit of this season
Drifting this way
Drifting this way
Wonder what idea can form this very day
Takes it's time to wake to such a chance
A dream these words clearly to my heart
To my heart
All in a matter of time
All in a matter of time
All in a matter of time
