

Ave Verum

Jon Anderson

See through this teaching life
Shines around my being
Out in the mists of timelessness
I see your face
Hold me closer now
Each and every feeling now is come
At last this majesty is God
Hear me through your love
See me in the light you are
Hold me closer to the earth
And all that gives (And all that is)
Now I feel your true light
Now I see your pure light
Now I hold this love within my heart
Is come
God of love of light will shine
Is come is come at last
