

The Kiss

Jon Anderson

How you gonna live through the dreams that you think about
How you gonna leave them behind?
And how you gonna search for the things that will help you
Through the end of time?
All you need to think of is hope and the good in love
And all that surrounds seems to hustle and bustle you
When you need to stay by my side
In this time of life
How you gonna know if it's love in a modern way
How you gonna reach the high you need?
How we gonna dream about the many things we think about
How we gonna let it be?
Oh! but I know you are mine
And it's almost divine
How we find ourselves
We ask ourselves
Do stars shine?
So it's love more or less
A special thing, to be true
How you gonna feel it when you cannot live it
How you gonna kiss the one you need?
How you gonna reach for the dreams that you think about
How you gonna let it be?
Oh! but I know this is right
We kiss in a special way
I think about it every night
Think about you every day
Love more or less
And I don't even know where to begin
