

Unbroken Spirit

Jon Anderson

No I never turned back,
When I saw the distant call of fire.
Never ran away,
When I heard my heart was burning fast.
Take away the first hello,
Take away the first hello.
You never broke me (You never broke me).
No I never turned back,
When the fire descended on my soul.
Never ran away,
When I knew that I was getting old.
I never turned back.
Unbroken spirit of mine.
Never released.
Unbroken spirit of my life.
There'll be a time,
When the clock runs faster than my life.
There is a force,
Deep within my heart, within my soul.
There is a dream (There is a dream).
That testifies I shall be saved.
Forever and a day,
Forever and a day.
This unbroken spirit of mine.
Unbroken spirit of my life.
Unbroken spirit.
So bless this life.
Should never be broke,
Should never be tied.
There is a chord,
That holds me close within my heart.
There is a song,
Redesigns my every move.
There is a song,
Telling me that everything will pass.
Everything will pass.
Everything.
