

Youth

Jon Anderson

See it in the songs of youth, worshipping the souls of love
How we dance upon the ground we bring together
Can you hear the echo sound, showing us a wisdom found
Was there ever so much trust in our foundation
Cos' I believe the world, the earth is fine alright
And we keep believing we shall live forever
And I've truly learned the lessons, soul eternal love
We all need to stand to trust in the light
See it as a song of youth, telling us to understand
Never before has a child had so much pressure
Helping in so many ways, ready to begin this age
Children of the 21st century come now
For they shall be the spirit, they shall be the truth
Where the colors and the creeds all come together
They will magnify our deeds and show us all the way
Better to be sacred than sorry
See it in the songs of youth, worshipping the soul of love
How we danced upon the ground we bring together
You know you can imagine this, you know you can imagine that
All we are is you and I and the stars above
All we are is you and I and the stars above
All we are is you and I and the stars above
And the spirit of love
And the spirit of love
And the spirit of love
