

Free To Believe

Jon B.

From "Light It Up" Motion Picture Soundtrack
Written by Jonathan Buck, Phillip "Silky" White & Dominiquinn

Some will tell you
It's impossible to do what you want to do
Even some we call family
Try to stunt our growth
To times a do
But it's all just a matter of time
Waiting for your stars to align, yeah
Then the day your eyes open wide
To see your destiny
What was meant to be will be

Nobody knows
All the people try to tell you so
You gotta see
What your soul is telling you to be
Free to believe

All who chose to hate you
And all you set out to do
(Everything you trying to do these days, they gonna hate on you)
Giving fuel for the fire
Turning right inside of you
(Burning right inside of you)
All the people standing the your way
Will pat you on the back
(They gonna pat you on the back)
Still talking shit today
We'll all be playa hated, oohh

Nobody knows
All the people try to tell you so
You gotta see
What your soul is telling you to be
Free to believe

All the people try to tell you so
You gotta see
What your soul is telling you to be
Free to believe

They move like big foul guys when they hop inside
Instead of applin' up the party, they thinkin' which man dies
It's so ironic yo, word to my brother Dom
There's more to this life than disrespecting mommy on the low
She's a queen and none the less
So groove to Bugatti and the words
That you manifest
Is you livin' extrized as the po po's chase
Givin' a f**k about a minute
I think you should wait

Chase brings me all the tapes
From the last phase

Analyze break it down, rebuild it and move
Mobilize conceptual thoughts to improve
My strategy
I write the history too
Some people try to come through and rearrange my mentals
It's somethin' like an alternate state that I get into
I realize my potential
It's telling me to
What you into

Nobody knows
All the people try to tell you so
You gotta see
Free to believe

Nobody knows
All the people try to tell you so
You gotta see
Free to believe

No one's gonna live your life
Gonna to make you right
Going to do your time
Got to make it happen
No one's gonna see you cry
Gonna change your mind
Gotta make it happen
