

Overflow

Jon B.

There's many tears and sad love songs
For all of those who lost to love, yes
Nobody seems to know why we do what we do
To each other when the times get rough, yes

I thought love was plain and simple, but, oh, what a lie
I've been counting on the one I love
It's not that love breaks my heart, you know love don't love no body
I guess the level that I loved was too much

Ohh, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow
No, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow

You see there's not many ways around the mountain
For all those who choose to climb, yes
Sometimes it feels like no matter how far I get
The distance is all up to time

See I gave my love my only faith but, oh, what a shame
I felt wealthy with my bag of fools' gold
And there's a point when you know that your love's off the trac ks
When the train stops 'cause the engine's too old

Ohh, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow, oh, baby
No, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow

I don't wanna say I lost my faith in love
No, I don't wanna say I've given up on my dreams
I believe in everlasting love, yes, I do
Just give it to me, what I want 'cause it's only you

Ohh, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow, oh, baby
No, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow

No, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow, oh, baby
No, I didn't know
Not to let my love overflow
