

Watch'n Now

Jon B.

feel the pulse of the city tonight it's all in my veins. all in my veins ya i ain't staying home i'm stepping out tonight.
where somebody knows my name somebody knows my name where reality, they serve it on a plate and what we drinkin', we can't even pronounce the name its making me feel better every sec0nd she don't know if i'm taking but with every move i make she's on me like a hunter she sees the lion in the distance i know she's trying to be as close to me as she can get she got no reason to fake it. so i know she gon' take a chance i see them girls dem eyes they be watch'n, eyes they be watch'n eyes they be watch'n i see dem girls watch'n now when she drop it on the floor like a professional

the way that body moves. she's showing what it do bring it back once more feelin' the pulse shaking the wall's tonight
u can feel the vibration. feel the vibration and i think the show your putting on deserves a standing ovation. standing ovation
bodies react to the track, the dj's playin'
ladies rewind that move and make it play again watch her make it look better every second she moving like she naked. ain't gotta even take off a thing those eyes are so persuasive i ain't even gotta lie if she's trying.
but this ain't nothing to me my swagg is comfortable and patent ain't got no reason to fake it kodak moment with every glance
