Morning in America

Jon Bellion

1600, 1600, 1600 on the SATs Said they gettin', said they gettin', said they gettin' me an SUV Just a couple miles from the lights of the city Pour a little liquor in my Starbucks Venti Just 11, just 11 when they said I had the ADD

I've been trying to keep up with all of these great expectations So I keep on faking

We're secretly out of control, nobody knows it But my mom's got a problem with and she's angry Cause my dad's [?], his door's always closed but I stop knocking Yeah, we're secretly out of control and everyone knows Oh, it's morning in America Oh, it's morning in America Oh, it's morning in America Oh, it's morning in America

At the locker, at the locker, at the locker selling time reliefs Where's the party? Where's the party? Where's the party? There's a house empty Didn't learn a lesson, didn't use protection, doesn't wanna keep the baby Throwing up in the alley, in the alley, older brother looking for me

We're secretly out of control, nobody knows it But my mom's got a problem with and she's angry Cause my dad's [?], his door's always closed but I stop knocking Cause there's some things I don't wanna know We're secretly out of control, nobody knows it When the past president overdosed, we all pretended It was real, it was shocking and all the town was talking Yeah, we're secretly out of control and everyone knows Oh, it's morning in America Oh, it's morning in America

No, no No, no We're secretly out of control, nobody knows me And my friends all addicted to porn, can't keep a girlfriend Cause the great expectations got all us imitating Yeah, we're secretly out of control and everyone knows

We're secretly out of control, nobody knows it But my mom's got a problem with and she's angry Cause my dad's [?], his door's always closed but I stop knocking Cause there's some things I don't wanna know We're secretly out of control, nobody knows it When the past president overdosed, we all pretended It was real, it was shocking and all the town was talking Yeah, we're secretly out of control and everyone knows Oh, it's morning in America And everyone knows Oh, it's morning in America Oh, it's morning in America And everyone knows
