

Run Wild

Jon Bellion

Holy verses in his kiss
He was your bible
You found nature in his lips
The sex was tribal
He brought purpose to your hips
Your soul's revival

Such a hopeful eve
But Adam let you down

He played you fast and reined you in
No slow recital
You waited for him on the strip
But no arrival
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
To let you down
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
Yeah he let you..
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild

Your heart's been dragged from left to right
Your soul's in limbo
To suffocate your open mind
He closed the window
And thus revenge is in your eyes
Spare me the info

Such a hopeful eve
But Adam let you down

He played you fast and reined you in
No slow recital
You waited for him on the strip
But no arrival
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
To let you down
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
Yeah he let you..
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild

You acting D12 crazy, this is so bizarre
That's just what happens when you suffer from a broken heart
Tight jeans warm thighs but your soul is frigid
That's just what happens when you make someone your true religion /(2x)

He played you fast and reined you in
No slow recital
You waited for him on the strip
But no arrival
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
To let you down
Gave it up for him
But only just to let you down
To let you down
Yeah he let you..
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild
Now you wanna run wild
