

Waves of Loneliness

Jon Bellion

It's so empty right where your head sleeps
And she said "I still smell your cologne in my bed sheets"

So I said "I'm just texting you to see how you're hold
Holding on..."
Then she said "some days, I'm okay
But when I'm alone it hurts because..."

T-t-t-the loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves (2x)

When did love letters get lost in translation
Translation, translation
I heard you took the train from Penn Station
Penn Station, Penn Station

So I said "I'm just texting you to see how you're hold
Holding on..."
Then she said some "thanks, I'm okay
But when I'm alone it hurts because..."

T-t-t-the loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves (4x)

I have to tape my mouth
I want to ask you questions
"Like do you sleep alone
I heard there's friends you rest with"
So I text her friend
Like "tell me where this man's at"
She said "you got some balls
You don't deserve to ask that"
Oh, oh, they gotta be lying
I dying to know but I know you're not mine
So I, I can't say shit

So I said "I'm just texting you to see how you're hold
Holding on..."
Then she said "some days, I'm okay
But when I'm alone it hurts because..."

(The loneliness comes in waves...)
The loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
(The loneliness comes in, yeah )
The loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
(The loneliness comes in, comes in, comes in)
The loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
The loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
The loneliness comes in waves
