

If Only I

Jon McLaughlin

In this old cafe
I come here everyday and watch you I watch you sometimes I hear your voice over all the noise you bleed through and I hear you slowly all the faces turn to yours like no one else exists anymore I'd talk to you if only I could speak and I'd dream of you if I could fall asleep people say love is hell a shiny prison cell where time stops but the door's unlocked now you're apart of me trust me I've tried to leave I've tried to walk but I'm all talk

like no one else exists anymore
and I'd dream of you if I could fall asleep then I stand up and go talk to you you start to smile like you want me to and we stay together for the end of time but this is only happening in my mind
