

Oh Jesus

Jon McLaughlin

Oh, Jesus
Can You hear me now?
Oh, Jesus
I'm just wondering how I'm doing
Am I proving worth
All the time You've spent
Oh, Jesus

I know You're there
Oh, Jesus
Have You decided where I'm going?
You know I was hoping
To be with You in the end

Oh, come what may
Through the black and blue
I will thank God for You
Jesus

I was so confused
Oh, Jesus
Have You seen the news
Tell me please
Help me see the way it all really works
Oh, Jesus

We yell so loud
Oh, Jesus
And Your name rolls out our mouths like fools
Tell me do we help or do we hurt?

And oh, come what may
Through the black and blue
I will thank God for You
Jesus

Have Your scars healed
Oh, Jesus
Can You still feel that cross
And friends You lost
And do You ever want to take it back?

Oh, Jesus
Yeah I know
Jesus
That I owe You so much more
Than I can give
What this life I live
You can have

And oh, come what may
Through the black and blue
I will thank God for You

Cause I am
Because of Jesus
