

Perfect

Jon McLaughlin

I used to stare up into the sky,
And fill the space around with my whys
But now I've got it all figured out,
And I'm embarrassed that it took me till now,

The simple answers in her replies
Unlock the universe with her eyes,
She rips apart my world with her moves,
Oh while stealing all the light in the room

And I found someone to walk me through this life
The brightest sun has opened up my eyes
Tonight I need exactly who she is
We're going to be perfect

She can teach a melody to the birds,
And problem solving without a word
She can tell the richest man how to need,
Oh right after telling him about me

And I found someone to walk me through this life
the brightest sun has opened up my eyes
Tonight I need exactly who she is
We're going to be perfect

And in my life,
If I can have one thing I don't deserve
Then I have never wanted anybody else but you

She can do no wrong in my mind,
So I take a seat while she takes her time,
'Cause I am here forever I say,
So lock me up and throw the keys away

'Cause I found someone to walk me through this life
The brightest sun has opened up my eyes
Tonight I need exactly who she is
We're going to be perfect
