

All I Wanna Be

Jon Secada

This being away is hard to take
Here I am, overcome
With all this emotion
I can't believe you're so far away
You're miles, and miles, from my world

People say, time's a healer
Some say you're just a phase

But I, I don't hear a word, that they're saying
I can't just turn off love
And I, can't find a way to forget about you
When every voice inside
Is saying, All I wanna be
All I wanna be, All I wanna be is there with you

In the words of my friends
You're not right, just let it go
It's about time you moved on
But being away won't break my faith
No way, no one, can change the way I'm feeling, no

People say, time's a healer
Some say you're just a phase

With you again, in the summer rain
With you again, until the sunrise
Again and again, those times I'll always remember
