It Ain't Over

Jon Young

When the road gets rough,
And you had about enough,
And you feel like giving up,
Just remember that it ain't over,
So when it seems like you by yourself (stay grindin' and you'll find all you need is yourself)
(2x)

Don't rely nobody cause all you need is you
Don't rely no one to get the job done
(2x)

It may seem hard,
Every day is like a struggle,
But I ain't going to stop, work through it,
Ya I hussle on the streets, they bussle like life beat,
Moving at light speed,
Just slow it on down cause you too can be like me,
You gotta a dream, reach for it,
Don't let them stop you,
Let em talk, let em hate, but don't let em knock you,
You got a plan, stick to it, don't give it up,
Cause if you did then you'll never be able to live it up,
And don't be worrying about letting someone else down,
Cause in the end you only got yourself to stand up proud,
Let me hear you say yes I'm gonna make it
Scream it loud so they no what life gives you, when you can take it.

When the road gets rough,
And you had about enough,
And you feel like giving up,
Just remember that it ain't over,
So when it seems like you by yourself (stay grindin' and you'll find all you need is yourself)
(2x)

You might get a little help along the way,
But it's on you,
If you don't come through,
You can only blame who,
That's yourself, ain't nobody fittin' to take the blame, not even Akon,
You gotta do your own thing, it don't matter who you got in your corner,
If you decide to up and quit, then it's on your shoulders,
It all comes down to you and yourself,
It's me, myself and I, can't rely on no help,
Cause you never really no what's around the bend,
Your girl might cut you loose so you could lose your best friend,
Then your back to square one, all alone, on your own but all you need is you
, so keep on.

When the road gets rough,
And you had about enough,
And you feel like giving up,
Just remember that it ain't over,
So when it seems like you by yourself (stay grindin' and you'll find all you need is yourself)
(2x)

Don't rely nobody cause all you need is you
Don't rely no one to get the job done
