

Like I Should

Jon Young

I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should
I shoulda treated my ex like this
She the reason I don't treat her good
For that bitch I did everything right
I'm staying out at night
Bought her this, got her that till she told me goodbye
I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should

Damaged and scared
I gave her all I had
There's nothing left to give
That's why I treat you bad
It's like I care but I don't
It's so unfair, yeah I know
She don't compare to you, no
So why am I scared to let go
My trust went out the window when she left me
She took the good me and won't set him free
Wish I could let it be
But I'm the wheedle so addicted, where's the needle
I'm crashing like Don Tweedle
Dipping in my regal just thinking bout all the bullshit
All the things I out you through
Things I wish I didn't do
But you still sticking through despite the nonsense
You're better off leaving by the time this song ends

I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should
I shoulda treated my ex like this
She the reason I don't treat her good
For that bitch I did everything right
I'm staying out at night
Bought her this, got her that till she told me goodbye
I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should

You got a real good lady
But why you treat her like she ain't,
That's crazy
Is it maybe because of the past
Well look what your doing lately
Actin a ass and mouthing off you lazy
You ain't got a job but still you think you balling hard
You crazy
And then you fight and she cryin
Your tryin? Your lyin
Cause in your head you know she's slowly dying
So what will make you realize
When someone does you wrong just let it go sometimes
Now see who you hurting?
Look into her eyes
Think about what you might lose if you don't up and wise
I can just advise but I can't make you choose
Just don't allow your past to ruin what's in front of you

I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should
I shoulda treated my ex like this
She the reason I don't treat her good
For that bitch I did everything right
I'm staying out at night
Bought her this, got her that till she told me goodbye
I got a good girl
But I don't treat her like I should
