Subliminal images crawl upon my screen Taking what is meant for good And making it obscene

I?m growing numb

But what is wrong and what is right

When did I start to lose this fight?

Somehow I lost track of who you are

I?m so amazed at what sin?s become
I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized

Justify the reasons why
I stare through my calloused eyes
I?m hollowed out, spiraled down
Slave to my own demise

I?m growing numb

But what is wrong and what is right

When did I start to lose this fight?

Somehow I lost track of who you are

I?m so amazed at what sin?s become
I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized

So what is wrong and what is right When did I start to lose this fight? Somehow I lost track of who you are

I?m so amazed at what sin?s become
I?m so ashamed that I?ve grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized
I don?t want to be desensitized
