

Out Of Your Mind

Jonatha Brooke

Look at you, you're out of your mind again
It's nothing new -- you're one of a kind you take the cake
And miss the boat at the same time

You've had bad luck, a tough draw, a rollercoaster stretch
On this rough road life
And every pretty promise taken back again

But you're a strong one, smart enough, not to blame
But not enough to make you feel alive
And there's nothing more that I could do to ease your pain

Look at you, you're out of your mind again
It's nothing new -- you're one of a kind you take the cake
And miss the boat at the same time
Look at you, you're high as a kite again
It's nothing new, cuz you never try -- it's black and white
And make or break at the same time

Then one day you'll have enough, you'll take a look
And see love staring in your eyes
And nothing in the world could make you hesitate

Look at you, you're out of your mind again
It's nothing new -- you're one of a kind you take the cake
And miss the boat at the same time

Cuz you're the life of the party 'til the lights go down
Can't keep still when there's no one else around
Your fingers shake and your mind won't quit
With all the reasons why you don't fit

Look at you, you're out of your mind again
It's nothing new -- you're one of a kind you take the cake
And miss the boat at the same time
Look at you, you're high as a kite again
It's nothing new, cuz you never try -- it's black and white
And make or break at the same time

Look at you
Look at you
Look at you....
