Can't Be That Crazy

Jonathan Clay

I know that I've probably looked crazy
Having nowhere to go
Sorry that I hurt you pretty lady
There's reasons I don't even know

I can only imagine what
They're all saying now
But there's something strange today
And it's left me wondering how

That I, I swear I had it down
You know I can't be that crazy
And I, I swear that I had found
What I'd been chasing

I look up there's another turn and I'm so
So scared to look around
I'm so tired of being burned
Just wasting time running around

And though the things that they can't see
They don't know my head
Sometimes I just don't think
That they'll ever understand

That I, I swear I had it down
You know I can't be that crazy
And I, I swear that I had found
What I'd been chasing
And I, I swear I had it down
You know I can't be that crazy
And I, I swear that I had found
What I'd been chasing, yeah

[solo]

You'll move on
You'll find someone
Who makes you feel alright
Oh but do you think
That you'll ever question
What went wrong that night?

You'll be fine, and I'll be fine
But you know you were supposed to be mine
You'll be fine, and I'll be fine
But you know you were supposed to be mine

'Cause I, I swear I had it down
You know I can't be that crazy
And I, I swear that I had found
What I'd been chasing
And I, I swear I had it down
You know I can't be that crazy
And I, I swear that I had found
What I'd been chasing, yeah
