

Lucky To Be Loved By You

Jonathan Clay

I've seen beautiful and I've seen blue
And I've got nothin' I need to prove I've covered oceans
Seen so many views
And I'm so lucky to be loved by you

In the mornin' when the lights comin' through
And I've got so much I need to do
Oh baby I'm not worried, I'm not blue Cause I'm so lucky to be loved by you

And I don't need no rainy days to make me wish you would've stayed
And I don't need to stop feelin' blue
No and I don't need no cryin' eyes or sad goodbyes to help me understand
That I'm a lucky man

I'm so lucky, so lucky, to be loved by you

And I don't need no rainy days to make me wish you would've stayed
And I don't need to stop feelin' blue
No and I don't need no cryin' eyes or sad goodbyes to help me understand
That I'm a lucky man

And I wanna scream it out
I wanna run around
And I wanna tell the world how you took what I knew and you turned it upside down
See you got me feelin' fine
Baby cause you are mine
And I'm so lucky to be loved
and I'm so lucky to be loved I'm so lucky to be loved by, by to be loved by you

oh oh oh
