

I'm driving home
My baby calls
Just wants to tell me that she loves me
The clear blue skies
They feed my eyes
Its beautiful as far as I can see
Then reality hits, I wake up from this dream
My baby's really pissed at me
And the sky is covered in rain
So many things are going on
But I'm gonna keep on going strong and
I'm gonna be ok
Today
I get to work and,
I walk in smiling
Cuz for once I'm right on time
Boss looks up, what could it be
Says I was supposed to be there at 9
Then reality hits and I'm four hours late,
Looks like I made a big mistake,
So I guess I'll just kiss this job goodbye
So many things are going on but,
I'm gonna keep on going strong and
I'm gonna be ok
Then reality hits I wake up from this dream
And its all coming down on me
I just want to run and hide
So many things are going on but
I'm gonna keep on going strong
And I'm gonna be ok
Today
Then reality hits I wake up from this dream
And its all coming down on me
I just want to run and hide
So many things are going on but
I'm gonna keep on going strong
And I'm gonna be ok
Today
