Slept So Long

Jonathan Davis

Walking, waiting
Alone without a care
Hoping and hating
The things I can't bare
Did you think it's cool to walk right up
To take my life and fuck it up
Well did you?

I see hell in your eyes
Taken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside

Walking, waiting
Alone without a care
Hoping and hating
The things I can't bare
Did ya think it's cool to walk right up
And take my life and fuck it
Well did you

I hate you!

I see hell in your eyes
Taken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside

I've slept so long without you
It's tearing me apart too
How did you get this far
Playing games with this old heart
I've killed a million petty souls
But I couldn't kill you
I've slept so long without you

I see hell in your eyes
Taken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside
Touching you makes me die inside
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside
