

What Have I Done

Jonathan Davis

Where have you been
All of my life?
I want to do what makes you mine
We were together for so long
Until you did what was
Oh, so wrong
What have I done to you?
You're making my life
Oh, so wrong
What have I done to you?
I'll bet you loved me too

What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done to you?

Sitting alone
Why can't you see
I'm thinking of you
You're thinking of me
And us together can't you see
That we're two of a kind
Meant to be together

What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done to you?

The days have come and gone
And to this day
I've been so wrong for loving you
But you never loved me too
You never loved me
You never loved me
You never loved me too
I've waited so long
All of my life
For what to do as make you mine
What have I done to you?
Now all I want to do
But now I love you so
What have I done?
What have I done to you?
I will always love you

What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done to you?
What have I done?
What have I done?
What have I done to you?
What have I done?
