

Bettah

Jonathan Nelson

My praise causes things to look bettah
It loosens and breaks every fetter
My faith is increased, new blessings released.
My praise causes things to look bettah.
My praise causes things to look bettah.

Gotta keep praising, raising my voice.
To let the world know:
I ain't go no woes, no woes.
My praise causes things to look bettah.
My praise causes things to look bettah.

Already looking bettah,
Already looking bettah for me.
Already looking bettah,
Already looking bettah for you.

Bettah (Bettah) Bettah (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah for me
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah for you

Already looking bettah,
Already looking bettah for me.
Already looking bettah,
Already looking bettah for you.

Bettah (Bettah) Bettah (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah for me
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah) Bettah for you.

I think you almost got it in the house tonight;
What I need you do is to
Grab your neighbor by their right hand.
The right hand represents power.
I want you to grab them by their right hand,
And I want you to make an overt confession
I want you to empower the person
Whose hand you're holding.
I want you to speak those things that be not
As though they already are.
And I want you to speak into their future
And raise this praise.

And just say "bettah"! (Bettah)
Do you believe it? (Bettah)
Sing bettah (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah)
I can see clearly now (Bettah) The rain is gone (Bettah)
The pain is gone (Bettah)
Bettah (Bettah)
Sing bettah (Bettah)
Everything is (Bettah) Bettah for you (Bettah for you!)
