My friend, our youth pastor
Live at the Faith Center
Integrity recorded artist
Jonathan Nelson featuring Purpose

We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious
We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious

We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious
We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us conquerors, conquerors

We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare His goodness
Live, live

We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare His goodness
Live, live

We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare to the nations
Better days are here

Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today

Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today

Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today

Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today

We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare

We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare

We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare

We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare

Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today
