

Backstabber

Jonezetta

You're sorry
You said it yourself and we believe you
(no we really do!)
Now no one is going to save you now!
Backstabber! Backstabber!
When you're in disguise

You're laughing
Cause they laugh at you
Then you scream out to all the empty pews
And No one is going to save you now!

Backstabber! Backstabber!
When you're in disguise

Now go and pray to your God inside!
Cause if you never knew, little boy it's you.
You can't use me! You won't use me!

Backstabber! Backstabber!
When you're in disguise
