

Cruel To Be Young

Jonezetta

Restless feet, dig holes into the bed sheets
Cross my eyes to see the sun on both sides
And feel it on my skin
God only knows what I think anymore

I write things down, don't know what for
You still sing the same ol' song you've always sung
Cruel to be so young
You'll still sing it's now or never
Cruel to be so young

This is never gonna change
Things are gonna stay this way
Another night
The same ol' city lights

Cross the t's
So you'll know what I mean
Again and Again and Again
Lately I've been livin' in a different day
Mistakes make for good in such strange ways

You'll still sing the same ol' song you've always sung
So cruel to be so young
You still sing it's now or never
Cruel to be so young

This is never gonna change
Things are gonna stay this way
So cruel to be young
