

Holding On To You

Jonezetta

all the different reasons why you sleep alone
I sleep alright
four more hours to go
i'm counting down
i'm leaving town
everyone is catching on
they all know... i'm barely hangin on

love is holding on to you
but it let go of me
love is holding on to you
I finally can see
love was holding on to you
then it let go of me

i was certain love had died but she makes me feel alive its getting easier and you know every connection that was made i watched rot away
a cold deep down your bones

then it let go of me

not 15 anymore
not like before
never getting over it is that your ghost coming round?
all over this town
never getting on with it

let go of me
