

The City We Live In

Jonezetta

I'm not taking one step closer unless you make me move
I'm not asking if you're happy
I already know

Love is all ready singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere

Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know I'm always waiting for you here

I came in through the door was open
I can't believe I'm here
Could take a picture of you sleeping
Or take you with me
Waiting for you here

Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know I'm always waiting for you here
