

Nobody Ever Will

Jonny Craig

(Hey it's me I've just, I've just been thing a lot and no matter how many times I let my pride get the best of me, I'm always calling this number back.)

For once let's skip the games
Trust me I had the faith
I can't deny things that I see with my own eyes
And please feel free to walk away
And if he begs I'll stay
But I refuse to feel the same
Don't let it eat you away

Do you really want to compromise our love?
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will
Maybe it's just time that I gave up
But I guess I'm strong willed.
Do you really want to compromise our love?
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will
Maybe it's just time that I gave up
But I guess I'm strong willed.

Let's take it back to the first time we met
My eyes caught your eyes and then
Next thing I know we're in the bedroom
Get naked on top of me and then my head goes 'boom'
Don't be scared girl
I'm willing to lose everything we felt
I'm willing to lose everything I've seen in you
But if you say my name I promise I'll hide

Do you really want to compromise our love? (I'll promise the world)
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will (I'll promise the world)
Maybe it's just time that I gave up (I'll promise the world to you, to you)
But I guess I'm strong willed
Do you really want to compromise our love? (I'll promise the world to you, if you just call my name)
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will
Maybe it's just time that I gave up (I'll promise the world, doing it for you)
But I guess I'm strong willed.

I'm promising you the world
All you gotta do is scream girl
I'm promising you the world
All you gotta do is scream girl

Do you really want to compromise our love? (All you gotta do is scream girl)
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will (Scream my name)
Maybe it's just time that I gave up (All you gotta do is scream girl)
But I guess I'm strong willed (Scream my name)
Do you really want to compromise our love? (All you gotta do is scream girl)
Do you really want to go? Nobody ever will (Scream my name)
Maybe it's just time that I gave up (All you gotta do is scream girl)
But I guess I'm strong willed (Scream my name)
