

A Quitter Never Wins

Jonny Lang

Seems like now days ain't nothin' meant to last
One day you've got it all and then it disappears so fast
And you know our love is on and off again
Well, I know you wanna quit me baby
But a quitter never wins

Well, you've walked out on our lovin'
But I've stayed through thick and thin
After all we've been through, baby
You're gonna tell me it's the end
And you know our love is on and off again
I know you want to quit me, baby
But a quitter never wins

Seems like now days love is a word that no one means
Ya' said you'd never leave me
Then ya' upped and walked right out on me
And now our love is on and off again
Well, I know you wanna quit me
But a quitter never wins

Well, I know you wanna quit me baby
but a quitter never wins
a quitter never wins
