Goodbye Letter

Jonny Lang

Theres a letter on the table

Ive never seen it thehre before

I dont have to read it

Cause i already know

Its been a long time coming And ive been awake for days I kow we can make it But things have to change

Your words say its hopeless
But i know theres more between the lines

Goodbye

Is this how you want it
Ill leave but i dont wanna go
And ill wait but i cant wait forever
For you to say goodbye

Well maybe im just dreaming but i know dreams come true And im still here beliveing That god made me for you

If we could just start over Get back where we began We're better off together It doesnt have to end
