

If This Is Love

Jonny Lang

I don't know why I always act as a fool, everytime
I get close to you
My head start(s) to aching My knees start to shaking
If this is love,
I'd rather have the blue(s)

Now, everytime
I hear you call my name
I jump so high,
you can call me Superman
You could sign my name
if they see you coming at my bank
If this is love,
I'd rather have the blue(s)

Our love was a two-way street
But from where I'm sitting,
and what I'm getting,
it's all one-way to me, ooh, yeah, la !

(acoustic guitar solo)

Well, I've been told true love is blind, ooh !
When it comes to me,
I ain't lyin',
you must be blind
in one eye

I think you know you got yourself a fool, that's right !
You could change my name and call me honey do Honey, do this Honey, do that Honey, go buy me a pink cadillac
Whether this is love, baby, I got the blue(s)
If this is love,
I'd rather have the blue(s)
If this is love,
I'd rather have the blue(s)
