

A Different Party

Jordan Knight

I don't know The way that you want this to go
Baby I'm so sick and tired of playing your games
If you say the word
I'll be there soon as it's heard
Maybe I'm wasting my time working on you

I'll do my best to show you
That I'm the one to hold you
Sometimes you make me lose my mind

We can all go to a different party
Dancing in the streets with some girls from Maui
We can all rock at the Deja Vu
And you know how we do it
I just want you to start shaking your body
Times are gonna change
Girl you know I'm naughty
I know you know
I'll go solo
With so many lovers so many offers
To be all over you ain't part of me

You won't believe
All of the tricks up my sleeve
Baby you so hypnotize me with your eyes
I can't control
Long enough to let you know
I'm getting old
Wasting my time waiting on you
Change
Change
