

No More Tears

Jordan Knight

Remember what we had because it's gone,
And that could never be complete now,
My heart deceived,
You said we shared one song,
Still you didn't hesitate to let me go

We were meant to be,
I just can't believe, baby,
How could you give up on me,

Wherever you are,
There is no need to worry,
I won't ask for nothing, baby,
I'm just fine,
Where ever you are,
Don't need no where to run to, baby,
'Cause I've no tears left to cry,

I think about your eyes, they always shined,
And my life was overtaken by your smile,
I was blind, you felt we worked right,
My emotions were sacrificed,

I don't wanna be over you,
But it's something that I gotta do,
And I'll make it through,

Wherever you are,
There is no need to worry,
I won't ask for nothing, baby,
I'm just fine,
Where ever you are,
Don't need no where to run to, baby,
'Cause I've no tears left to cry,

I wish we could've worked things out,
It was different with you and I,
I can't help but remember the time,
That everything was just right,
But now girl everything's falling apart,

Where ever you are,
There is no need to worry,
I won't ask for nothing, baby,
I'm just fine,
Where ever you are,
Don't need no where to run to, baby,
'Cause I've no tears left to cry
