Jordan Pruitt

Who is this stranger?
I see behind my eyes,
letting fear decide who she will be.
Do I know this person?
Living in my skin?
Cause each mistake she makes is hurting me.

Who is this girl?
Giving into this world, this world, this world?

Cause I lost who I am
So now where do I go?
I'm staring in the mirror at a face I used to know
Can someone get me back, to where i"m meant to be?
Next time I catch my reflection, I wanna see me
I wanna see me

How did I arrive here?
I don't want regrets, can I make a change, start again?
My eyes are now wide open?
I can see the truth, the daylights starting to flood in
I wanna feel, like I'm back to what's real, what's real, what's real

Cause I lost who I am
So now where do I go?
I'm staring in the mirror at a face I used to know
Can someone get me back, to where i"m meant to be?
Next time I catch my reflection, I wanna see me
I wanna see me

Today is a new day to move beyond the past
These mistakes I've been making can't hold me back
Can't hold me back, can't hold me back
Cause I know who I am

Cause I know who I am
And where I want to go
Staring in the mirror, see the girl I used to know
Seems like I'm getting back to who I used to be
Next time I catch my reflection, I'm gonna see me
Cause I know who I am
And where I want to go
Staring in the mirror, see the girl I used to know
Seems like I'm getting back to where I'm meant to be
Next time I catch my reflection, I'm gonna see me
I'm gonna see me
