

Female Intuition

Jordyn Taylor

Oh oh oh oh [x2]

Tell me who
Tell me when
Tell me where
Tell me why

Tell me who [x4]
Tell me why

My Intuition

Sittin' down with my girls
Tryin figure out what I'm gonna do
Never though I'd see the day
When the question mark was hanging over you
And it ain't nothing that somebody said
There's no where or when
No when no where
But I've already caught in my head
Time and time again
Yeah Cause

Something's going on
Can't put my finger on it
Something's going on
Don't wanna linger on it
Tell yourself you're wrong
But the feeling's so strong

Call it female
Intuition
I can feel your
Competition
When we're kissin'
Something's missin'
Call it female
Intuition

Monday night you're lookin' slick,
Well who's it for? if it ain't for me x2
Called you up on tuesday and you say
You're busy tryna cook and clean
What you mean?

And lately you've been switching up your phone
From loud to vibrate
Is that why you've been missing all my calls
Did you plan it that way? That way?
Cause

Something's going on
Can't put my finger on it
Something's going on
Don't wanna linger on it
Tell yourself you're wrong
But the feeling's so strong

Call it female
Intuition
I can feel your
Competition
When we're kissin'
Something's missin'
Call it female
Intuition

Tryna catch you is like an ocupation
You say that it's all in
My imagination
Sometimes it's shadows that I'm chasin'
But I can't erase this
Voice I hear inside
Baby

Something's going on
Can't put my finger on it
Something's going on
Don't wanna linger on it
Tell yourself you're wrong
But the feeling's so strong

Call it female
Intuition
I can feel your
Competition
When we're kissin'
Something's missin'
Call it female
Intuition

Tell me who
Tell me when
Tell me where
Tell me why
[x3]

Tell me who [x4]
Tell me why

Oh oh oh oh [x4]
