

Genesis

Jorma Kaukonen

Time has come for us to pause
And think of livin' as it was
Into the future we must cross, must cross
I'd like to go with you
I'd like to go with you

You say I'm harder than a wall
A marble shaft about to fall
I love you dearer than them all
Them all, so let me stay with you
So let me stay with you

And as we walked into the day
Skies of blue had turned to gray
I might have not been clear to say, to say
I never looked away
I never looked away

And though I'm feelin' you inside
My life is rollin' with the tide
I'd like to see it be an open ride
Along with you, goin' along with you

The time we borrowed from ourselves
Can't stay within a vaulted well
And livin' turns into a lender's will
So let me come with you
And let me come with you

And when we came out into view
And there I found myself with you
When breathin' felt like somethin' new, new
Along with you, goin' along with you
